

Official Announcement: Nwèl Kreyòl Celebration Update

Dear Friends and Supporters,

As we approach the upcoming Nwèl Kreyòl celebration, we are diligently preparing to ensure that it will be an unforgettable evening of music, tradition, and Christmas cheer, filled with the vibrant spirit of Haitian culture.

Proudly presented by Jaz Enterprise and Fleurimond Catering & Events, sponsored by Pwodwi Lakay, 1(888)AvokaPam & Gran Pan-Pan Foods, Nwèl Kreyòl scheduled to take place on Saturday, December 21, 2024 at The Theater at City Tech, featuring the incredible talents of Zafem and the iconic Emeline Michel, promises to be a night filled with the finest expressions of our rich cultural heritage.

However, it is with a heavy heart that we must also share an important update regarding our lineup. Due to the newly developing travel restrictions in Haiti, we are disappointed to announce that Lionel Benjamin, affectionately known as the King of Christmas, will not be able to join us this year. Mr. Benjamin's presence has always been a highlight of any Christmas festivity and we were looking to bring him to New York to bring nostalgia back, but this development is entirely beyond our control. His absence will surely be felt by us all and we share in the disappointment this news may bring.

However, the spirit of Nwèl Kreyòl is undiminished, and we are thrilled to announce that the outstanding Beethova Obas will be joining our musical lineup. Beethova is a highly regarded artist whose mastery and musical depth promises to add another notch of excellence to our soirée. His participation ensures that the evening will continue to be a showcase of the best in Haitian music and culture.

We extend our deepest thanks to all of our patrons for your understanding and continued support. The essence of Nwèl Kreyòl is not just in the performers who grace the stage but in the community that comes together to celebrate our shared heritage.

Rest assured, December 21st will be a spectacular evening, and we look forward to celebrating with each of you. Let's come together to fill The Theater at City Tech with the joy, warmth, and vibrancy that only Nwèl Kreyòl can bring.
